American Political Culture [3 volumes]: An Encyclopedia

American Political Culture [3 volumes]: An Encyclopedia

This all-encompassing encyclopedia provides a broad perspective on U.S. politics, culture, and society, but also goes beyond the facts to consider the myths, ideals, and values that help shape and define the nation.

- Offers approximately 225 entries covering U.S. politics, culture, society, and beliefs
- Includes an introductory overview of the forces that have shaped and continue to shape American political culture and a concluding essay that gathers key thematic threads and looks toward the future
- Covers the myriad ways in which American political culture influences other aspects of American society
- Examines how cultural symbols and beliefs are manipulated to advance political interests and establish government authority
- Connects new issues such as social media and sexual politics with the political culture
