His First Kill: A Short Story John Brinling

Mr. M gave the boy a difficult assignment. A public killing on the Fourth of July. In Vermont. Of a friend. Whom he really cared for.

A mission of great political significance according to Mr. M he couldn't fail to complete, because he would be assassinated if he did.

Faced with this impossible choice, the boy procrastinated until circumstances made that impossible. Then he acted.

Only the results weren't what he expected.
