Just like you need blueprints to build most things, you need a “life blueprint” to build your future. You can only live in the present but you can plan for the future. Use the mantra: “If it is to be, it’s up to me”. This guide will help you discover your passions, values, and dreams. Then you will determine if your dreams align with your passions and values. Once you determine that your dreams do align with your passions and values, you can map out goals that will bring your dreams into reality. Through an organized method, this guide will help you reach your goals in life!
