“Morning Motivators” are short thoughts about a variety of different topics, all designed to get you looking at life differently. In order to make strides to meet your life goals, you have to change your focus, from the lack of things in your life, to what has been working for you. Our company Think It And Have It, has been helping people, over the past few years, to learn how to find their passion, and how to focus on happiness. These are not unrealistic goals, never to be reached. Countless people already enjoy living every day like this. Why not become one of those people? At times it seems like nothing is working and there is nothing to be grateful or thankful for. This book will take you from those negative thought patterns, that so many of us get caught up in, into a thought pattern that looks at life with limitless possibilities.
