Everything you need to know about the Vespa--the iconic, stylish, and environmentally friendly scooter--is contained in this colorful and engaging volume. Vespa fans will delight in combing the pages of this history of the world's most recognizable scooter. Written in cooperation with the manufacturer, Piaggio, it tells the story of the scooter's origins in postwar Italy, when the rebuilding of the country necessitated an affordable and modern means of transportation for the masses. Italian for "wasp," the term Vespa caught on quickly, but the scooter achieved international stardom when Audrey Hepburn hopped on Gregory Peck's Vespa in the film Roman Holiday. As a result, a vehicle originally designed as utilitarian came to symbolize style, freedom and romance. The book includes a gatefold listing the Vespa models from 1943 to today along with images of Vespas throughout the decades, including the most iconic designs as well as today's luxury editions. In colorful photographs and text this volume also traces the succession of technological and stylistic improvements that have helped maintain Vespa's status as one of the world's iconic scooter brands.

As a pupil exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library or even make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's internal or real their passion. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to go to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring and can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Vespa can make you really feel more interested to read.
