Look How Good You Are: Watching Gossip Girl, Season 1A Jacob Clifton

When Gossip Girl first aired on the CW, in the fall of 2007, it was the definition of a buzzy, low-rated hit. That did not last long, as the show changed the conversation around YA, programming, and the industry itself--and Jacob Clifton, at Television Without Pity, was there for every second.

LOOK HOW GOOD YOU ARE is the first of several volumes collecting Jacob's popular columns throughout the show's first fall season: From the Pilot to the show's first major masterpiece, the Thanksgiving episode "Blair Waldorf Must Pie!" and including the classic, game-changing "Victor, Victrola" arc.

Over fifteen years writing and creating communities at Television Without Pity, Jacob Clifton was noted by industry and fans alike for his positive analytical approach and ebullient humor. His weekly columns—on shows ranging from American Idol to The Apprentice, Battlestar Galactica to Gossip Girl, Homeland to Pretty Little Liars and more—set off a decade of conversations across the internet.

Now, with the former site defunct and a Gawker editorship in the rearview, Jacob is excited to release these definitive, heavily revised editions of those classic recaps at jacobclifton.com. Please visit the site for more info and join the mailing list!
