I'm Going to Costa Rica to Kill Myself Mr. Adam Loewenbaum

An angst-ridden young man in his late twenties, Lee, disenchanted with the life he deems a failure, starts to re-evaluate his existence. Taking stock in various components of his life, Lee begins to question whether or not it's all worth it. Disappointed by his profession, rejected by the opposite sex, unfulfilled creatively, Lee begins to contemplate the options available to him. Too scared to walk away, too inept to make it on his own, Lee must decide what course of action he's going to take with his life. Does he have any choice in the matter? Maybe he's destined to be a loser... A sudden tragedy sparks a train of thought, triggering a chain of events ultimately leading Lee to a destination where he's always wanted to go. Only: he never thought he'd be there under these circumstances...
