Thoughts by the Ocean Sergio F. Bambaren

Thoughts by the Ocean is an invitation to recover the knowledge of the Language of Truth, through daily, ordinary teachings and examples that, told in a pure and simple manner, will help you to appreciate the small wonders of life. We all humans are born with the wisdom of the Language of the Truth; but as we grow up, we start to replace the wisdom we were born with; and without noticing, we start replacing all the wonderful wisdom, pureness and light we were born with voices, religions and languages that were created not in the place where we came from, but here, on Earth. There are many languages spoken on the face of the Earth, the ones that were created by different nomadic tribes thousands of years ago. Same with religions, with traditions and rules: and though all these languages are spoken through different places on Earth, they have one single thing in common: they all sooner or later replace the Language of the Truth. It happened to me. I grew up, and the rules and laws of society dwindled my knowledge of the Language of the Truth, until I finally forgot it. Until the day I met Shaun...
