A Tight Place R.R. Morgan

Love doesn't always follow lust, but when it does, it burns eternal.

They haven't seen each other since high school. Ryan Tate, the guy every girl wanted to be with, and Lisa York, the girl no one knew existed. They're older now, recent college graduates home for a summer of relaxation and reflection before going off to chase their destinies. Lisa has grown into a vibrant, fetching beauty, and Ryan is just as sexy and confident as ever. They happen to meet up one night, and a fire ignites.

But old differences divide them, Lisa's shy, introverted ways cooling the flames of Ryan's passion like an icy wind. In the midst of a heated argument, Ryan reveals his most intimate needs; needs that Lisa isn't sure she can indulge. Yet, as she follows Ryan along an erotic path of self-discovery and experimentation, she comes to experience the toe curling pleasures hidden behind forbidden passageways. It's a tight place, and they both love it.

As their summer of lust progresses, each taboo scenario outdoing the last, they begin to form a bond neither of them expected. But their eventual separation looms, and in an effort to make their fling one to remember, they share a final evening of unmatched debauchery so explosive, so deliriously intense, neither of them will ever be the same.
