Summary

Six months after they break up, Tim is still longing for the best sexual partner he has ever had. Lori had fit him perfectly, and he fills the hole that her absence has created with all the sexual memories he has of her and their threesomes. But those memories may hold more than the past—they may help him figure out the future.

Excerpt

Over a period of three months, they would see each other out at shows or out on the town, and would go out their way to dodge and ignore the other. Finally, at a chance meeting at a crowded bar where the two of them were crushed up against one another, the two of them had to speak out of civility and necessity. Thankfully they were both very drunk, the music was very loud and both were very horny, so whatever they had to say wouldn't have detracted much from how their privates were meant to be put together.

That first night, neither one could remember who planted to the first kiss. They had been talking at the bar, then at the pool table, and then by themselves at a little table in the back corner. She was left by her friends, either on accident or on purpose, and he decided to give her a ride home. When they got to the car, he realized that he had lost his keys, which was probably the best thing for them since he was too inebriated to drive. Luckily the doors were unlocked, so they were able to get into the car to continue kissing and talking.

Whether it was just to keep the night moving when words began to fail them or because this night was special, Lori ended up going down on him....continued inside
