This book is the second in The Green Mountain Dream Trilogy. It hinges largely on the events of No Permission Needed but then introduces additional characters who wrestle with some of the moral and ethical challenges that many of us do... only perhaps, with far more at stake. The book asks important questions: How far can Patti go to find out the truth when she believes Dana has been lying and how far is too far? How far can Mr. Cal go to protect his students, Maddie and TC, and how far is too far? How far can Maddie go to support her best friend, TC, and how far is too far? We've all been taught that "two wrongs don't make a right" ...but is that always true? And what role will the troubled student Trent, Dana's cryptic dreams, and the coyote from The Forest all play in the final outcome? You'll need to fasten your seatbelts as this story will take you on some unexpected twists and turns.
