Judas Matthew O'Neil

The name Judas has become synonymous with betrayal, and those who follow the Christian faith would have you believe that is the case. Yet when instances of betrayal are examined, and what the gospel accounts have to say about Judas' role in Jesus' ministry, can we believe that Judas was guilty of the act at all? Analyzing scripture, history, and contrasting other biblical and historical figures, author Matthew O'Neil discusses the philosophical issues with claiming Judas committed an act of betrayal, and what that means for the theological Jesus.
