“A good poet is hard to find and welcome when she finds us. Let us welcome Wanda Scott to the family of poets.” Nikki Giovanni

WHERE are you in life’s relationships? WHAT have you been through in your lifetime?

Life has a unique way of entangling us in the midst of our relationships and emotions. Are you ready to move through life releasing instead of storing up the pain? How do you express yourself in these emotional times? How do you move past the emotional pain to spiritual healing, true love, and peace?

One way is to express yourself with letters, poems and words of love.

This book is an evolution and exploration into the life of Wanda L. Scott, a journey through the tumultuous emotions of life’s experiences. It is a compilation of passionate poetry reflecting on life and love, pain and powerlessness, highs and lows. These pieces represent a view from “the fence” that Wanda hopes to discourage others away from. She wants to empower them with the message of leaning on God’s transforming word, that can help them through each and every one of these situations.
