Death Cast Alan Forder

It is four days before Halloween, 1988 in the small, rural city of Harrisville in Northern Utah. Twelve year-old Jolyn must find a way to free herself and her three companion children from the old house and the man named Carl Starky. The mystery of how they arrived there and their connection to Carl will become shockingly clear as their fear of him escalates. Through a series of vignettes, we view episodes in Starky's life that lead to his ascent as Utah's most notorious serial killer. In a blending of true crime fiction and horror, DEATH CAST presents events both real and supernatural; unfolding to expose a horrifying past as Jolyn and her companions face a terrifying future while piecing together the truth behind their own strange existence. Before time runs out Jolyn must find a way to stop Carl from executing the most heinous crime imaginable.
