When Nicholas becomes an inquiry agent, he's searching for a challenge. But he is surprised when his first assignment is a sensitive case of murder involving the aristocracy.

Kathryn was prepared to exchange propriety for security as Lord Taunton's mistress until her world is shattered by his murder. Everyone assumes her protector cast her aside and enraged, she killed him with the jeweled knife Taunton had given her. Only Nicholas, the inquiry agent investigating the case, seems willing to listen to her story and vow of innocence.

But as the evidence against Kathryn mounts, Nicholas is caught between his desire for the lovely woman and the facts. If he can't prove her innocence, she will hang, and he may lose the only woman he has ever loved.
