How to Start and Make a Conversation: How to Talk to Anyone in 30 Seconds or Less Christopher Gottschalk

Whenever you talk to someone, you have less than ten seconds to capture their attention and another twenty to hold it to you. This window, or opening to getting to know someone is incredibly vital for every salesman, marketing exec, or manager out there who has ever had an important phone call or meeting. But, it is equally as important for the scores of individuals who feel nervous or uncomfortable talking to strangers a figure estimated by many psychological studies to be upwards of 70% of individuals. Being able to have a quick and comfortable conversation can be helpful in almost every aspect of your life, in your career, your family, and your love life.

This book was written for those in the vast majority who feel nervous or unhinged the second they step into an unfamiliar conversation.
