Thank You for allowing us to share our excitement about one of the most beautiful things that we all believe in...#LOVE. Each of my co-authors have stepped out of their comfort zone and shared some incredibly personal stuff about the experiences they have walked through. This book has so many stories, some of which include living in very harsh conditions and dealing with the emotional trauma that you have no control over, as well as stories about survival and strength. We have brought you real life experiences from a whole new perspective. The purpose of our book is to enlighten our readers to appreciate what they have and allow the power of love to heal their lives.
