If there is one concept that is capable of summing up Dom Chautard's spirituality, it is one which is sometimes seen written, most appropriately, over the doors of Cistercian monasteries: "GOD ALONE." Not contemplation, not action, not works, not rest, not this or that particular thing, but God in everything, God in anything, God in His will, God in other men, God present in his own soul. To do whatever God willed, to suffer whatever He willed, that was enough for Dom Chautard, because all he asked was the opportunity to give himself, to give his will, utterly, without recall, to the infinite Wisdom and Love Who created and redeemed us all. It is the spirit of St. Bernard, and the spirit of the White Monks. It is the spirit of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. It is the spirit in which these pages were written.
