The Magical Tales of Dr. Baer: Emily's Miracle - A Story of Hope Chris Lombardi

The story you now have in front of you is a real-life miracle. Beware, though: for even the most incredible miracles can sometimes come with a price. For ten-year-old Emily Sweet, the price could be her very life.

If you decide to read this book, be warned that you will experience Emily Sweet's highs and lows as if you are alongside her. On one hand, you will find her story uplifting, exciting, and inspiring. You'll ride along as she discovers a magical bottle with a life-changing message inside, and travels on both an invisible hot air balloon and a whale-shaped submarine. You'll be there when she converses with talking animals and discovers new and exciting friends on a wondrous secret island filled with super-cool inventions, boundless adventure, and a special child-saving company whose leader happens to be a six-foot, four-inch panda bear doctor!

But Emily has her share of disappointment, too. You'll experience Emily's many unpleasanties, like being abandoned at birth and being sent to live with a wretched, hideous pet grooming foster mom. When Emily comes down with a mysterious illness and is sent to a local children's hospital, she rubs shoulders with an evil, child-hating doctor armed with an army of grotesque masked, killer mall mannequins -- determined to not only stop her and other unfortunate children from being happy, but to destroy the special child saving company and the giant panda bear doctor who runs it. Orphaned, scared, alone, HOPE is the only chance she has of one day finding someone who's not just assigned to take care of her, but who lovingly and truly wants to - if she's strong enough to survive the evil that hunts her.

Please help children in need by reading this story, then spread the word so others will also read it. Hopefully, together, we can make sad children happy, one story at a time.
