When caught in the crossroads of history, the deadliest enemy and the greatest glory lies in the heart. The Price of Glory is a historical fiction novel set during the American Civil War. A young girl's life changes forever after she helps a Confederate officer escape from the hands of the Union forces that are camped near her family home. Her father, in fear of the wrath of the Yankee commander toward his daughter, sends her and her sister south. But, unknown to him, he has actually sent them into the middle of a raging battle.
